

Daryl Robbins

Born in Lehi, Utah

Lived in Pleasant Grove , Utah until 1966

Moved to Tremonton Utah to work for the sugar company

Moved to Moses Lake Washington in 1972

Returned to Tremonton , Utah in 1974

He now lives in Tremonton, Utah

Been interested in wood working since High School

Bought my first lathe in 1986

Replaced it with my Woodfast in 1988

Acquired a small Jet lathe sometime after that

Occupations; electrician, machinist, and spent 20 years as public works director for Tremonton City.

Favorite things to turn, small items, spindle work, unique items

Daryl demonstrated one of his projects at the February 2003 meeting held at Weber High School.

See the March 2003 newsletter.

A good time to look back on the Web at <http://www.utahwoodturners.org/>

